

Name: _____ Date: _____ Per.: _____

Zinn "WAR is the Health of the State"

1. According to Zinn "In the United States, not yet in the war, there was a worry about the health of the state", why?

2. What were the advanced capitalist countries of Europe fighting over? What did the socialists call this war?

3. How many people died in the Battle of the Marne?

4. How did losses at the front effect the requirements for joining the British Army?

5. Zinn describes, in July 1916, British General Douglass Haig ordering eleven divisions of English troops to attack them Germans. What Happens to the troops? What happens to Haig as a result?

6. In the London newspapers after the battle of the Somme, what does Paul Fussell's, in The Great War and Modern Memory, tell the British public they should do?
7. In April 1917 what did Germany announce?
8. Was it unrealistic for the Germans to treat the US as a neutral nation? How does the sinking of the Lusitania reflect this?
9. By 1917 how much war goods had been sold to the Allies?
10. Woodrow Wilson said, "Concessions obtained by financiers must be safeguarded by ministers of the state". What did he mean?